Supervisor Hagman Announces Pet Adoption Program

ONTARIO, CA – San Bernardino County Fourth District Supervisor Curt Hagman announced an opportunity for area residents to grow their families by participating in the Fourth District's pet adoption program approved by the Board of Supervisors today.

"We want to encourage families to adopt animals from local shelters and help animals find a safe and loving home," stated Supervisor Hagman. "This project is an opportunity for Fourth District constituents to take full advantage of the benefits of being pet guardians. In fact, there are many adorable animals just waiting to meet you. I hope you and your loved ones will find a perfect match."

Supervisor Curt Hagman has made improved animal welfare a highlight of his tenure in public service. He received high marks from California's Humane Society for his work as a legislator in the State Assembly to crack down on the vicious and harmful practices of cockfighting and dogfighting. The animal welfare organization also praised Hagman for his role in increasing microchip implants on released shelter animals.

Supervisor Hagman's November adoptee is Toby, an eight year old corgi-terrier mix. "Toby is housebroken, well-mannered and ready for your family to love," continued Hagman. "He is looking for a loving, forever home. If you're considering including a dog in your family, please consider adopting Toby."
